HOLY EUCHARIST: RITE II

THE FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

April 28, 2024

8:00 and 10:00 a.m.

WELCOME!

The people of Holy Comforter joyfully welcome you to this historic church. We are happy that you are here, and we hope you will find your worship today meaningful and inspiring. If you are looking for a church to call your own, we hope you will consider our parish. At the root of all we do is our desire to live out the Great Commandment of Jesus Christ: to love God and to love our neighbors as ourselves. Holy Comforter has made a difference in our lives, and we believe it can do the same for you.

In peace,
The Rev. Greg Brown
Rector

THE FIRST LESSON

Acts 8:26-40

Lector A reading from the Acts of the Apostles:

An angel of the Lord said to Philip, "Get up and go toward the south to the road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza." (This is a wilderness road.) So he got up and went. Now there was an Ethiopian eunuch, a court official of the Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, in charge of her entire treasury. He had come to Jerusalem to worship and was returning home; seated in his chariot, he was reading the prophet Isaiah. Then the Spirit said to Philip, "Go over to this chariot and join it." So Philip ran up to it and heard him reading the prophet Isaiah. He asked, "Do you understand what you are reading?" He replied, "How can I, unless someone guides me?" And he invited Philip to get in and sit beside him. Now the passage of the scripture that he was reading was this:

"Like a sheep he was led to the slaughter,
and like a lamb silent before its shearer,
so he does not open his mouth.
In his humiliation justice was denied him.
Who can describe his generation?
For his life is taken away from the earth."

The eunuch asked Philip, "About whom, may I ask you, does the prophet say this, about himself or about someone else?" Then Philip began to speak, and starting with this scripture, he proclaimed to him the good news about Jesus. As they were going along the road, they came to some water; and the eunuch said, "Look, here is water! What is to prevent me from being baptized?" He commanded the chariot to stop, and both of them, Philip and the eunuch, went down into the water, and Philip baptized him. When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord snatched Philip away; the eunuch saw him no more, and went on his way rejoicing. But Philip found himself at Azotus, and as he was passing through the region, he proclaimed the good news to all the towns until he came to Caesarea.

Lector The word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

PSALM 22:24-30 (read responsively at 8:00)

Lector My praise is of him in the great assembly; *
I will perform my vows in the presence of those who worship him.

People The poor shall eat and be satisfied,
and those who seek the Lord shall praise him: *
“May your heart live for ever!”

All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to the Lord, *
and all the families of the nations shall bow before him.

For kingship belongs to the Lord; *
he rules over the nations.

To him alone all who sleep in the earth bow down in worship; *
all who go down to the dust fall before him.

My soul shall live for him;
my descendants shall serve him; *
they shall be known as the Lord's for ever.

They shall come and make known to a people yet unborn *
the saving deeds that he has done.

ANTHEM (sung at 10:00)

Risen Lord (Barry Rose, b. 1934)

Sung by the Children's Choir; Jane Arant, accompanist

Risen Lord, risen Lord,
Give us a heart for simple things:
Love, laughter, bread, wine, and dreams –
Fill us with green, growing hope!
Risen Lord, risen Lord,
Make us a people whose song is “Alleluia!”
Whose sign is peace and whose name is love.
Give us a heart for simple things,
And to sing “Alleluia!”

Lector A reading from the first letter of John.

Beloved, let us love one another, because love is from God; everyone who loves is born of God and knows God. Whoever does not love does not know God, for God is love. God's love was revealed among us in this way: God sent his only Son into the world so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the atoning sacrifice for our sins. Beloved, since God loved us so much, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God lives in us, and his love is perfected in us.

By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. And we have seen and do testify that the Father has sent his Son as the Savior of the world. God abides in those who confess that Jesus is the Son of God, and they abide in God. So we have known and believe the love that God has for us.

God is love, and those who abide in love abide in God, and God abides in them. Love has been perfected among us in this: that we may have boldness on the day of judgment, because as he is, so are we in this world. There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear; for fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not reached perfection in love. We love because he first loved us. Those who say, "I love God," and hate their brothers or sisters, are liars; for those who do not love a brother or sister whom they have seen, cannot love God whom they have not seen. The commandment we have from him is this: those who love God must love their brothers and sisters also.

Lector The word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

✝(at 10:00) At this time, children ages 3 to second grade--and any adults who wish to accompany them--are invited to follow the small wooden cross down the center aisle for children's chapel in our parish hall. Older children are welcome to participate as leaders and helpers. Everyone will return before the Peace.✝

GOSPEL PROCESSION (sung at 10:00)

#529 In Christ there is no East or West

THE GOSPEL

John 15:1-8

Deacon
People

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.
Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said to his disciples, "I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinegrower. He removes every branch in me that bears no fruit. Every branch that bears fruit he prunes to make it bear more fruit. You have already been cleansed by the word that I have spoken to you. Abide in me as I abide in you. Just as the branch cannot bear fruit by itself unless it abides in the vine, neither can you unless you abide in me. I am the vine, you are the branches. Those who abide in me and I in them bear much fruit, because apart from me you can do nothing. Whoever does not abide in me is thrown away like a branch and withers; such branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask for whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. My Father is glorified by this, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples."

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Deacon

Let us join through prayer with everything that lives. Let us acknowledge to God the one life we share, saying: O God, who makes us one, hear our prayer.

Intercessor

O God, your Holy Spirit is alive in all the earth. Your Spirit that moved and shaped land and sea, trees and beasts still moves and shapes us into creation. Through Christ we know your one Holy Spirit, for you are God of all. That all the world may know your spirit, we pray: O God, who makes us one:
Hear our prayer.

Open your world before our eyes, so that we see far and near. Show us newly what lives around us, over and behind and within. Give us the mind of Christ. O God, who makes us one:
Hear our prayer.

For our nation and for the elections to come, we pray: Almighty God, to whom we must account for all our powers and privileges: Guide the people of the United States in the election of our President, our Governor, and all officials and representatives;

That by faithful administration and wise laws, the rights of all may be protected, and our nation be enabled to fulfill your purposes.

Deacon

In union with the faithful gathered at every altar of your church where the sacrament is celebrated this day, I believe that you are truly present in the Holy Sacrament. And, since I cannot at this time receive you in the bread and the wine, I ask you, Lord Jesus, to come into my heart. Until by your grace I can receive again, in this life or in the life to come. Amen.

Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom. And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. Making Space for What Feeds You

Life is sometimes stressful. There is a lot to organize and balance, with various demands on one's time. Perhaps there are things you want to do but somehow never get around to. Maybe your prayer life is one of those things... I will admit that for myself there are times when my spiritual life gets squeezed, and it can seem hard to make space for quiet and reflection. It helps to know what feeds you. For me, singing and walking are important ways in which I can connect to God. So even in the busy weeks, or the days when it feels like too much is piling on, if I can sing or walk, it lets me breathe. Making space for what feeds you is vital. Life can take over so easily and we find ourselves worn down without knowing how to fix it. But the most important things we do as Christians are to love God, and to love our neighbor as ourselves. So whatever it is for you, to love yourself in that sustaining way that gives life, let that take priority sometimes!

Ed Gash is inviting folks to come to the Sardis Baptist Church labyrinth at 1:00 pm on May 4 and spend a few moments in a walking meditation for World peace and healing. WLD is an annual event that began in 2009 on the first Saturday in May. People around the globe participate in a moving meditation for world peace.
